

Greenbelt Park Perimeter Trail

 Greenbelt Park in Maryland
(near the Baltimore-Washington Parkway)

A scenic loop that follows the perimeter of Greenbelt Park, featuring peaceful forests, meadows, streams, and boardwalks. A relaxing hike close to the city with plenty of nature.

~5.4 miles
LENGTH

~406 ft
(mostly flat terrain)
ELEVATION GAIN

Easy to Moderate
DIFFICULTY

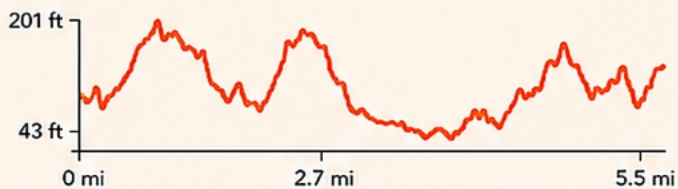

2.5 hours
TIME

Loop
TYPE

ELEVATION PROFILE

FACILITIES

- Public bathrooms are located in the Sweetgum Picnic Area and the Ranger Station near the campground entrance.
- There is also a campground, if you are inclined to explore more of the area.

DOGS

- Allowed on leash.

ACCESSIBILITY

- Some sections are wide and even, but not fully ADA accessible due to natural surfaces.

LOCATION

Greenbelt Park in Maryland
(near the Baltimore-Washington Parkway).

Trailhead: Multiple access points; main parking near campground/day-use areas.

MAPS

- Available via AllTrails and NPS App

COST

- Free entry

WHAT TO BRING

- Bring sturdy walking shoes, water, bug spray for creekside sections, light layers for changing weather, and a camera.

