

The Panoramic Point Trail

King's Canyon National Park

A short and easy loop trail leading to a scenic viewpoint with sweeping views of Redwood Canyon, Monarch Divide, Kaweah Canyon, and Tehipite Dome (on clear days).

|                                                                                  |                                                                                   |                                                                                   |                                                                                   |                                                                                   |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  |  |  |  |  |
| 0.5 miles                                                                        | ~95–100 ft                                                                        | Easy                                                                              | 30 min                                                                            | Loop                                                                              |
| LENGTH                                                                           | ELEVATION GAIN                                                                    | DIFFICULTY                                                                        | TIME                                                                              | TYPE                                                                              |

ELEVATION PROFILE

FACILITIES

- There are restrooms and picnic tables at the trailhead.

DOGS

- Not allowed.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Sweeping views of Redwood Canyon, Monarch Divide, Kaweah Canyon, and Tehipite Dome (on clear days).
- A perfect short hike for sunrise or sunset light.

LOCATION

Trailhead is located at the top of Panoramic Point Road, about 2.3 miles up the hill from Grant Grove Village. There is a parking lot.

MAPS

- Available on Alltrails.com

COST

- National Park Pass:
- Private vehicle: $35
  - Motorcycle: $30
  - Per person (walk-in/bike): $20
  - Annual pass: $70

WHAT TO BRING

High-altitude UV is strong even when it's cool. Bring a hat, sunglasses, and high-SPF sunscreen.

