

A BOOKISH CITY WALK PORTLAND

Portland, Oregon, USA

Follow the stories through Portland's downtown and Pearl District—where indie bookstores, historic landmarks, and local flavor meet. From legendary shelves to literary history, this walk is a love letter to readers and the places that inspire them.

1–1.5 miles
LENGTH

Flat
ELEVATION GAIN
(<20 feet)

Easy
DIFFICULTY

25–35 min
WALKING TIME
2–3 hrs with stops

Point to Point
TYPE

QUICK TRAIL NOTES

LOCATION:

Downtown Portland and Pearl District, Oregon.

FACILITIES:

Public restrooms at Pioneer Courthouse Square, Powell's City of Books, and Deschutes Brewery Portland Public House.

WATER AVAILABILITY:

Public drinking fountains and water bottle fill-stations.

CELL SERVICE:

Excellent, 5G coverage throughout the route.

DOGS:

Allowed on leash; select patios welcome dogs.

ACCESSIBILITY:

Fully paved sidewalks with ADA-compliant curb ramps.

MAPS:

portland Maps.com

WHAT TO BRING:

Rain jacket, comfortable walking shoes, reusable water bottle, a shopping tote, and enough free time to become thoroughly lost inside Powell's City of Books.

