YOUR TIME

The Gate

8:00 AM start

Meet Enrique and the pack at his training center by Cabo's old tuna cannery.

Desert Path

Sand and scrub

A gentle, sandy start through dry grasses, thorny shrubs and cactus.

Loose Gravel

Grade steepens

The footing loosens. Look back for your first open view of the bay and marina.

Granite Scramble

Hands on rock

Slabs and boulders. Nothing technical, but grip and balance matter.

The Summit

~30 min rest

A 360° view of Land's End, Lovers' Beach, Médano Beach and the Pacific.

The Descent

Short steps

A different way down on slippery gravel. Take big drops sideways.

Back at the Gate

The wide dirt trail leads home. Tip in cash; it supports the dogs.

Along the way

- Tours Guided only, on private land. 8 AM daily except Saturdays; 6 AM in Aug–Sep. Confirm on the tour's Facebook page.
- Meet The old tuna cannery (Antigua Empacadora de Cabo), Blvd. Paseo de la Marina.
- Parking None for visitors. Take a taxi or rideshare.
- Cost Free and donation-based. Tip $10–20+ USD per person, in cash.
- Facilities None. No restrooms, trash cans, shops or water.
- Signal Generally reliable, close to downtown and the marina.
- Dogs Leave yours at home. Enrique's pack works as a team.

On the granite and gravel

Watch for cactus spines and don't reach blindly under rocks. The summit is exposed, with no railings.
