

Arín Waterfalls Hike

 Munay Sonqo, Arín, Sacred Valley, Peru

A beautiful high-Andean hike to the twin Arín Waterfalls, where legend, wildflowers, and sweeping valley views come together in the Sacred Valley.

2 miles

DISTANCE

~650 ft

ELEVATION GAIN

Easy to Moderate

DIFFICULTY

1.5–2
hours

TIME

Out & Back

TYPE

ELEVATION PROFILE

FACILITIES

None on trail

BEST TIME TO HIKE

May–September for dry weather and clear skies; December–March for fuller waterfalls and greener hillsides

ACTIVITIES

Swimming, picnicking, meditating, or simply strolling and connecting with Andean nature.

WHAT TO BRING

Sun protection, layers, sturdy shoes, water, rain jacket during wet season, and a respectful spirit for this sacred landscape

TRAILHEAD

Munay Sonqo,
Arín, Sacred Valley,
Peru

ALTITUDE NOTE

The trail sits at high elevation in the Sacred Valley, so walking slowly and acclimatizing beforehand is recommended.

Honor the land, its stories, and local traditions.

Allin Munay – Walk with good heart.

© www.adventurousamble.com

