

Look-Up Bingo

A whole city hiding in plain sight. Mark a square each time you spot something between Pike Place and Pioneer Square.

Look up

Rooftops, towers, signs

Look out

The bay and the skyline

Look down

Sidewalks and street level

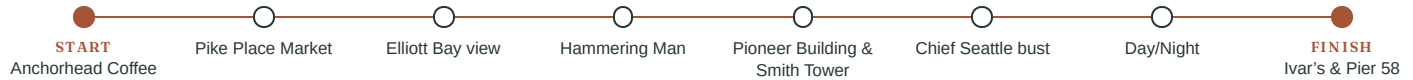

Look around

People, art and life

The route

Meet at Anchorhead Coffee, 2003 Western Ave · about 2 miles, point to point · your guide may change the order

Hammering Man mid-swing

Seattle Art Museum. His arm really moves.

A sailboat on Elliott Bay

Look past the market railings.

Purple glass in the sidewalk

Old skylights over the underground.

Flying fish

Listen for the shout at Pike Place first.

A green-and-white ferry

Washington State Ferries cross the bay.

Someone holding a coffee

It's Seattle. This one's easy.

The Public Market sign

Red neon letters and the big clock.

An orange cargo crane

Port of Seattle, to the south.

Words in Lushootseed

On Day/Night by Edgar Heap of Birds.

Smith Tower's pointed top

Tallest west of the Mississippi in 1914.

A jellyfish shape

The Pier 58 playground.

Chief Seattle's bronze bust

Honoring Si'ahl, Duwamish and Suquamish leader.

Free space

Start at Anchorhead Coffee

A carved stone entrance

Try the Pioneer Building on First Ave.

The Olympic Mountains

Across the water on a clear day.

A ghost sign

A faded painted ad on old brick.

A dog out for a walk

Ours was a golden retriever.

A manhole cover worth a photo

Some downtown covers are artwork.

The Great Wheel

The Ferris wheel on Pier 57.

Ivar feeding the gulls

A bronze Ivar Haglund and his fries.

A gull on a piling

Guarding someone's lunch.

A date carved in stone

Most of Pioneer Square rose after 1889.

A carved wooden figure

Pioneer Square honors Coast Salish art.

A bronze or brass plaque

Stop and read one.

An umbrella

Or a local who refuses one.

Ways to win

A row

A column

A diagonal

Four corners

Blackout

Circle the stamp or cross out the square when you spot it. Squares don't need to be found in order, and your guide may take a different route.

For the record

Spotted something that's not on the card? _____

Walked with _____ Date _____

First to bingo _____ Squares found _____ / 25

